FUND FACTS

Who is this fund for?

This fund may be appropriate for investors who are:

- Looking for diversified exposure to high quality Canadian companies with long histories of dividend growth
 - · Willing to accept a low to medium level of risk
 - Seeking dividend income and capital growth through active management over time

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell units of the fund.

What you pay	How it works
Deferred Sales Chargeif you sell within:1 year of buying6%2 years of buying5%3 years of buying4%4 years of buying3%5 years of buying2%6 years of buying1%After 6 yearsnothing	 The deferred sales charge is a set rate. It is deducted from the amount you sell. When you buy the fund, Equitable pays your advisor a commission of up to 5.04%. Any deferred sales charge you pay goes to Equitable. You can sell up to 10% (for non-reg/RSP) or 20% (for RIF/LIF) of your units each year without paying a deferred sales charge. The deferred sales charges are treated as withdrawals for purposes of calculating the guaranteed benefits. When you transfer units from one fund to another within your insurance contract, the deferred sales charge schedule will be based on the date you bought your first fund.
No Load	There are no sales charges.When you buy the fund, Equitable pays your advisor a commission of up to 2.1%.

Ongoing fund expenses

The management expense ratio (MER) includes the management fee and operating expenses of the fund. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your investment. For details about ongoing fund expenses see section 3 of your Information Folder.

Trailing commission

Equitable pays your advisor a trailing commission of up to 1.0% for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and advice your advisor provides to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee. You don't pay these expenses directly.
