How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy and sell units of the Fund.

Sales Charge Option	What you pay	How it works
Front End Load (FEL)	0% to 5% of the amount you invest, as negotiated with your advisor.	When you buy units of the Fund, any commission above 0% is deducted from your Deposit. It is paid to your advisor and their managing general agency. There is no charge to you when you sell Fund units.
Chargeback Option - three year (CB3)	There is no charge to you when you sell units of the Fund.	When you buy the Fund there is no initial charge. Equitable pays your advisor an initial commission of up to 3.5%. If you sell within three years of the Deposit date, your advisor may have to return some or all of their initial commission to Equitable.
Chargeback Option - five year (CB5)	There is no charge to you when you sell units of the Fund.	When you buy the Fund, there is no initial charge. Equitable pays your advisor an initial commission of up to 5.6%. If you sell within five years of the Deposit date, your advisor may have to return some or all of their initial commission to Equitable.

Ongoing Fund expenses

The MER includes the management fee, insurance fee, operating expenses, and any Underlying Fund MERs. You don't pay these expenses or the MER directly but they will reduce the return on your investment. An additional guarantee fee applies to the Estate Class and the Protection Class. It is paid out of the Contract each month which leads to a slightly lower net rate of return. For details about how the guarantees work, please refer to the Contract Provisions and Information Folder.

Trailing commission

Equitable pays your advisor a trailing commission of up to 1.0% for as long as you own the Fund. It is for the services and advice your advisor provides to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the MER. You don't pay this commission directly.

	Guarantees		Management fee	Insurance fee	MER	Guarantee fee
	Maturity	Death
